COMPLAINT

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a collective and class action brought pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, (“FLSA”), and Wisconsin’s Wage Payment and Collection Laws, Wis. Stat. § 109.01 et seq., Wis. Stat. § 104.01 et seq., Wis. Stat. § 103.001 et seq., Wis. Admin. Code § DWD 274.01 et seq., and Wis. Admin. Code § DWD 272.001 et seq. (“WWPCL”) and Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, by Plaintiff, Jessie Sorenson, on behalf of herself and all other similarly situated current and former hourly-paid, non-exempt employees of Defendants, The Rennes Group, Inc. and Rennes Assisted Living Corp., for purposes of obtaining relief under the FLSA and WWPCL for unpaid overtime compensation, unpaid agreed upon wages, liquidated damages, costs, attorneys' fees, declaratory and/or injunctive relief, and/or any such other relief the Court may deem appropriate.

2. Defendants operated (and continues to operate) an unlawful compensation system that deprived and failed to compensate Plaintiff and all other current and former hourly-paid, non-exempt employees for all hours worked and work performed each workweek, including at an overtime rate of pay for each hour worked in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek, by: (1) shaving time (via electronic timeclock rounding) from Plaintiff's and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees' weekly timesheets for pre-shift, post-shift, and in-shift hours worked and/or work performed, to the detriment of said employees and to the benefit of Defendants, in violation of the FLSA and WWPCL; and (2) failing to compensate Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees for meal periods during which they were not completely relieved of duty or free from work for at least thirty (30) consecutive minutes in duration, in violation of the WWPCL, which resulted in overtime violations of the FLSA.

3. Defendants' failure to compensate its hourly paid, non-exempt employees for compensable work performed each workweek, including but not limited to at an overtime rate of pay, was intentional, willful, and violated federal law as set forth in the FLSA and state law as set forth in the WWPCL.

39. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees were non-union employees of Defendants.

40. During the three (3) years immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Plaintiff and all current and former hourly-paid, non-exempt employees were subject to Defendants' same unlawful policy, practice, custom, and/or scheme of shaving time (via electronic timeclock rounding) from Plaintiff's and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees' weekly timesheets for pre-shift, post-shift, and in-shift hours worked and/or work performed, to the detriment of said employees and to the benefit of Defendants.

41. During the three (3) years immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Plaintiff and all current and former hourly-paid, non-exempt employees were subject to Defendants' same unlawful policy, practice, custom, and/or scheme of failing to compensate Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees for meal periods during which they were not completely relieved of duty or free from work for at least thirty (30) consecutive minutes in duration, in violation of the WWPCCL, which resulted in overtime violations of the FLSA.

42. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees were subject to Defendants' same pay and timekeeping policies and practices.

43. During the three (3) years immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Defendants tracked and/or recorded Plaintiff's and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees' hours worked each workweek.

44. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Defendants maintained an electronic time-clock system (hereinafter simply "Defendants' electronic timekeeping system") that Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees used on a daily basis for timekeeping and/or recordkeeping purposes.

45. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees used Defendants' electronic timekeeping system on a daily basis for timekeeping and/or recordkeeping purposes.

46. During the three (3) years immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Defendants maintained employment records and other documentation regarding Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees.

47. During the three (3) years immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Defendants maintained a centralized system for tracking and/or recording hours worked by Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees.

48. During the three (3) years immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Defendants maintained a centralized system for compensating Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees for all remuneration earned, including but not limited to with monetary bonuses, incentives, awards, and/or other rewards and payments.

49. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees used Defendants' electronic timekeeping system to "clock in" and to "clock out" of work each day at the beginning and end of their shifts, respectively.

50. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees performed compensable work immediately after "clocking in" via Defendants' electronic timekeeping system at the beginning of their shifts each work day.

51. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees performed compensable work immediately prior to “clocking out” via Defendants’ electronic timekeeping system at the end of their shifts each work day.

52. Each work day during the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Defendants required Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees to record their hours worked and work performed by “clocking in” at the beginning of their shifts (when compensable work commenced) and “clocking out” at the end of their shifts (when compensable work ceased) via Defendants’ electronic timekeeping system.

53. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees used Defendants’ electronic timekeeping system to record all hours worked and work performed each work day and each workweek.

54. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Plaintiff’s and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees’ “clock in” and “clock out” times each work day via Defendants’ electronic timekeeping system were kept, stored, and/or retained by Defendants.

55. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Plaintiff’s and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees’ “clock in” and “clock out” times each work day via Defendants’ electronic timekeeping system recorded, reflected, and represented the actual hours worked and work performed each work day and each workweek by Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees.

56. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Defendants' pay policies and practices failed to compensate Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees for all hours actually worked and/or work performed each work day and each workweek as recorded, reflected, and represented via Defendants' electronic timekeeping system.

57. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Defendants' compensation practice applicable to Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees was to round said employees' actual hours worked and/or work performed each work day as recorded, reflected, and represented via Defendants' electronic timekeeping system in the following manner: forward in intervals of fifteen (15) minutes prior to said employees' scheduled shift start times; and backwards in intervals of fifteen (15) minutes after said employees' scheduled shift end times. Such a practice resulted in Defendants shaving time from Plaintiff's and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees' timesheets each work day and each workweek for pre-shift and post-shift hours worked and/or work performed while "clocked in" via Defendants' electronic timekeeping system.

58. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1) and in practice, Defendants' electronic timeclock rounding resulted in it shaving time from Plaintiff's and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees' timesheets each work day and each workweek for pre-shift and post-shift compensable work performed by failing to compensate Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees when compensable work commenced each work day (as recorded, reflected, and represented via Defendants' electronic timekeeping system); instead, in practice, Defendants compensated

Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees based on the rounded times each workweek via its electronic timekeeping system, to their detriment and to Defendants' benefit.

59. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees used Defendants' electronic timekeeping system to "clock out" for (and to "clock back" in from) meal periods each work day.

60. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Defendants required Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees to "clock out" for (and to "clock back" in from) meal periods each workday via its electronic timekeeping system.

61. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees "clocked out" at the beginning of their meal periods each work day – and then "clocked back" in at the conclusion of their meal periods in the same manner – via Defendants' electronic timekeeping system.

62. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees performed compensable work immediately prior to "clocking out" via Defendants' electronic timekeeping system for meal periods each work day.

63. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees performed compensable work immediately after "clocking back in" via Defendants' electronic timekeeping system from meal periods each work day.

64. On a daily basis during the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Defendants' policy in practice was not to compensate Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees for meal periods during which said employees "clocked out" and then "clocked back in" via its electronic timekeeping system.

65. Often times on a daily basis during the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Plaintiff's and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees' meal periods lasted less than thirty (30) consecutive minutes in duration.

66. Often times on a daily basis during the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Plaintiff's and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees' meal periods lasted less than thirty (30) consecutive minutes in duration because said employees' were performing compensable work on Defendants' behalf, with Defendants' knowledge, for Defendants' benefit, and/or at Defendants' direction.

67. Often times on a daily basis during the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Plaintiff's and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees' meal periods lasted less than thirty (30) consecutive minutes in duration because Defendants required, expected, or directed said employees to "clock back in" from their meal periods via Defendants' electronic timekeeping system and physically return to their work stations or work areas in order to return to work within thirty (30) consecutive minutes from when said employees initially "clocked out" for their meal periods via Defendants' electronic timekeeping system.

68. On a daily basis during the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Plaintiff's and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees' meal periods were not work-free for at least thirty (30) consecutive minutes in duration.

69. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), the duration of Plaintiff's and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees' meal periods were identified via said employees' "clock" times via Defendants' electronic timekeeping system.

70. On a daily basis during the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees did not take and/or were not provided meal periods that lasted at least thirty (30) consecutive minutes in duration.

71. On a daily basis during the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees "clocked out" at the beginning of their meal periods – and then "clocked back in" at the conclusion of their meal periods in the same manner – less than thirty (30) consecutive minutes thereafter, respectively, via Defendants' electronic timekeeping system in order to return to work at Defendants.

72. On a daily basis during the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees "clocked out" at the beginning of their meal periods – and then "clocked back in" at the conclusion of their meal periods in the same manner – less than thirty (30) consecutive minutes thereafter, respectively, via Defendants' electronic timekeeping system in order to perform compensable work at Defendants' direction, on Defendants' behalf, for Defendants' benefit, and/or with Defendants' knowledge.

73. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees for on duty meal periods that lasted less than thirty (30) consecutive minutes in duration despite having an actual and accurate record of said employees' hours worked and/or work performed each work day and each workweek via its electronic timekeeping system.

74. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Defendants also shaved time (via electronic timeclock rounding) from Plaintiff's and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees' weekly timesheets for in-shift hours worked and/or work performed, to the detriment of said employees and to the benefit of Defendants.

75. On a daily basis during the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), and despite Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees performing compensable work immediately after "clocking back in" via Defendants' electronic timekeeping system from meal periods each work day, Defendants' pay policies in practice failed to compensate said employees for these hours worked and work performed. For example, if Plaintiff or any other hourly-paid, non-exempt employee "clocked out" for his/her meal period on any given work day and then "clocked back in" at the end of his/her meal period twenty (20) consecutive minutes thereafter in order to return to work at Defendants (and to immediately begin performing compensable work), Defendants failed to compensate said employees not only for the on duty meal period itself that lasted less than thirty (30) consecutive minutes in duration (i.e., twenty (20) minutes), but also for the compensable hours worked and work performed immediately after "clocking back in" at the end of the meal period and prior to the conclusion of the scheduled meal period (i.e., failing to compensate said employees for ten

(10) minutes of work performed if the scheduled meal period was for thirty (30) minutes in duration).

76. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Defendants shaved time from Plaintiff's and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees' timesheets each work day and each workweek in the manner described in the aforementioned paragraphs for in-shift compensable work performed by failing to compensate Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees when compensable work commenced each work day after said employees' meal periods ended (as recorded, reflected, and represented via Defendants' electronic timekeeping system); instead and in practice, Defendants compensated Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees based on the in-shift rounded times each workweek, to the detriment of said employees and to the benefit of Defendants.

77. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Defendants' pay policies and practices failed to compensate Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees for work performed each work day as described herein despite Defendants having an actual and accurate record of said employees' pre-shift, post-shift, and in-shift hours worked and/or work performed via its electronic timekeeping system.

78. During the three (3) years immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Defendants' policies in practice failed to compensate Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees at the correct and lawful overtime rate of pay for all hours worked and work performed in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek.

79. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Defendants knew and/or was aware that its pay policies and practices failed to compensate Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees for all pre-shift, post-shift, and in-shift compensable work performed as described herein despite having a record of all hours worked and work performed each work day and each workweek via its electronic timekeeping system.

80. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Defendants did not properly and lawfully compensate Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees for all hours actually worked and/or work performed each work day and each workweek, including but not limited to at an overtime rate of pay.

81. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Defendants' policies in practice unlawfully and impermissibly failed to, on a daily and/or weekly basis, compensate Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees when compensable work commenced and ceased each work day.

82. During the three (3) year period immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1) and during workweeks when no overtime was due, if any, Defendants suffered or permitted Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees to work without being paid appropriate and lawful compensation for all hours worked and/or work performed each work day and each workweek.

83. Defendants were or should have been aware that their compensation policies in practice failed to compensate Plaintiff and all other hourly-paid, non-exempt employees in the same or similar fashion for all hours worked and/or work performed each work day and each workweek, including but not limited to at an overtime rate of pay.

COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS UNDER THE FLSA

84. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of herself and all other similarly situated employees as authorized under the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 216(b). The similarly situated employees include:

All hourly-paid, non-exempt employees employed by Defendants within the three (3) years immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1) who have not been compensated for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek at the proper, correct, and/or lawful overtime rate of pay.

85. Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective primarily performed non-exempt job duties each workweek and, thus, were legally entitled to overtime pay for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) in a workweek.

86. Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective were compensated on an hourly basis (and not on a salary basis) each workweek and, thus, were legally entitled to overtime pay for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) in a workweek.

87. During the three (3) years immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1), Defendants, as a matter of policy and practice, shaved time from the FLSA Collective's timesheets for all pre-shift, post-shift, and in-shift hours worked and/or work performed each work day while "clocked in" via Defendants' electronic timekeeping system. These practices resulted in Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective being denied overtime compensation by Defendants at the rate of one and one-half times their regular hourly rate of pay for hours worked in excess of forty (40) in a workweek.

88. The First Claim for Relief is brought under and maintained as opt-in Collective Actions pursuant to § 216(b) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. 216(b), by Plaintiff on behalf of the FLSA Collective.

89. The FLSA Collective claims may be pursued by those who affirmatively opt in to this case, pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

90. Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective are and have been similarly situated, have and have had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and are and have been subject to Defendants' decisions, policies, plans and programs, practices, procedures, protocols, routines, and rules willfully failing and refusing to compensate them for each hour worked including overtime compensation. The claims of Plaintiff as stated herein are the same as those of the FLSA Collective.

91. Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective seek relief on a collective basis challenging, among other FLSA violations, Defendants' practice of failing to properly and lawfully compensate employees for all work performed and/or hours worked at the correct and lawful overtime rate of pay each workweek, in violation of the FLSA.

92. Defendants were or should have been aware that their unlawful practices failed to compensate and deprived Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective of the appropriate and lawful overtime wages and compensation due and owing to them, in violation of the FLSA.

93. The FLSA Collective is readily ascertainable. For purpose of notice and other purposes related to this action, the names, phone numbers, and addresses are readily available from Defendants. Notice can be provided to the FLSA Collective via first class mail to the last address known by Defendants and through posting at Defendants' facilities in areas where postings are normally made.

94. Defendants' conduct, as set forth in this Complaint, was willful and in bad faith, and has caused significant damages to Plaintiff and the putative FLSA Collective.

WWPCCL Class (Meal Periods): All hourly-paid, non-exempt employees employed by Defendants within the two (2) years immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint (ECF No. 1) through the date of judgment who have not been compensated for all hours worked each workweek – either at a regular rate of pay or at an overtime rate of pay for hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek – as a result of Defendants’ to compensate said employees for daily on duty meal periods that lasted less than thirty (30) consecutive minutes in duration.

96. The members of the Wisconsin Classes are readily ascertainable. The number and identity of the members of the Wisconsin Classes are determinable from the records of Defendants. The job titles, length of employment, and the rates of pay for each member of the Wisconsin Classes are also determinable from Defendants’ records. For purposes of notice and other purposes related to this action, their names and addresses are readily available from Defendants. Notice can be provided by means permissible under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23.

97. The proposed Wisconsin Classes are so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable, and more importantly the disposition of their claims as a class will benefit the parties and the Court. Although the precise number of such persons is unknown, upon information and belief, there are over fifty (50) members of each of the Wisconsin Classes.

98. Plaintiff's claims are typical of those claims which could be alleged by any members of the Wisconsin Classes, and the relief sought is typical of the relief which would be sought by each member of the Wisconsin Classes in separate actions. All of the members of the Wisconsin Classes were subject to the same corporate practices of Defendants, as alleged herein. Defendants' corporate-wide policies and practices affected all members of the Wisconsin Classes similarly, and Defendants benefited from the same type of unfair and/or wrongful acts as to each member of the Wisconsin Classes. Plaintiff and other members of the Wisconsin Classes sustained similar losses, injuries and damages arising from the same unlawful policies and practices and procedures.

99. Plaintiff is able to fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Wisconsin Classes and has no interests antagonistic to the Wisconsin Classes. Plaintiff is represented by counsel who are experienced and competent in both collective/class action litigation and employment litigation and have previously represented plaintiffs in wage and hour cases.

100. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy – particularly in the context of wage and hour litigation where individual class members lack the financial resources to vigorously prosecute a lawsuit against corporate defendants. Class action treatment will permit a number of similarly-situated persons to prosecute their common claims in a single forum simultaneously, efficiently, and without the unnecessary duplication of efforts and expense that numerous individual actions engender. Because the losses, injuries and damages suffered by each of the individual Wisconsin Class members are small in the sense pertinent to a class action analysis, the expenses and burden of individual litigation would make it extremely difficult or impossible for the individual members of the Wisconsin Classes to redress the wrongs done to them.

101. Important public interests will be served by addressing the matter as a class action. The adjudication of individual litigation claims would result in a great expenditure of Court and public resources; however, treating the claims as a class action would result in a significant saving of these costs. The prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the Wisconsin Classes would create a risk of inconsistent and/or varying adjudications with respect to the individual members of the Wisconsin Classes, establishing incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants and resulting in the impairment of class members' rights and the disposition of their interests through actions to which they were not parties. The issues in this action can be decided by means of common, class-wide proof. In addition, if appropriate, the Court can, and is empowered to, fashion methods to efficiently manage this action as a class action.

102. Defendants have violated the WWPCCL regarding payment of regular wages and overtime wages. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are fearful of bringing claims because doing so can harm their employment, future employment, and future efforts to secure employment. Class actions provide class members who are not named in the Complaint a degree of anonymity which allows for the vindication of their rights while eliminating or reducing these risks.

103. There are questions of fact and law common to the Wisconsin Classes that predominate over any questions affecting only individual members. The questions of law and fact common to the Wisconsin Classes arising from Defendants' actions include, without limitation, the following: (1) Whether the work performed by Plaintiff and the Wisconsin Classes is compensable under federal law and/or Wisconsin law; (2) Whether Defendants engaged in a pattern or practice of forcing, coercing, deceiving and/or permitting Plaintiff and the Wisconsin

Classes to perform work for Defendants' benefit without being properly compensated; (3) Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Wisconsin Classes for all work Defendants suffered or permitted them to perform each work day and each workweek; (4) Whether Defendants failed to compensate the Wisconsin Classes for daily on duty meal periods that lasted less than thirty (30) consecutive minutes in duration; and (5) The nature and extent of class-wide injury and the measure of damages for the injury.

104. The questions set forth above predominate over any questions affecting only individual persons, and a class action is superior with respect to considerations of consistency, economy, efficiency, fairness and equity, to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the state law claims.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
Violations of the FLSA – Unpaid Overtime Wages
(Plaintiff on behalf of herself and the FLSA Collective)

105. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and the FLSA Collective, reassert and incorporate by reference all paragraphs set forth above as if restated herein.

106. At all times material herein, Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective have been entitled to the rights, protections, and benefits provided under the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq.

107. At all times material herein, Defendants were an employer of Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective as provided under the FLSA.

108. At all times material herein, Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective were employees of Defendants as provided under the FLSA.

109. Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective are victims of uniform compensation policy and practice in violation of the FLSA.

110. Defendants violated the FLSA by suffering or permitting Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective to perform work without being properly or lawfully compensated for each hour worked in excess of forty (40) hours each workweek. Specifically, Defendants' unlawful compensation practice shaved time from the FLSA Collective's timesheets for all pre-shift, post-shift, and in-shift hours worked and/or work performed while "clocked in" via Defendants' electronic timekeeping system. By failing to compensate the FLSA Collective in such a fashion as described herein, this unlawful compensation practice denied Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective overtime premium pay for each hour they worked in excess of forty (40) hours each workweek and for which Defendants are liable pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

111. The FLSA regulates, among other things, the payment of an overtime premium by employers whose employees are engaged in commerce, or engaged in the production of goods for commerce, or employed in an enterprise engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce. 29 U.S.C. § 207(a)(1).

112. Defendants were and are subject to the overtime pay requirements of the FLSA because Defendants, collectively and individually, are enterprises engaged in commerce and/or its employees are engaged in commerce, as defined in FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 203(b).

113. Defendants' failure to properly compensate Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective and failure to properly record all compensable work time was willfully perpetrated. Defendants have not acted in good faith and with reasonable grounds to believe that their actions and omissions were not a violation of the FLSA, and as a result thereof, Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective are entitled to recover an award of liquidated damages in an amount equal to the amount of unpaid overtime premium pay described above pursuant to Section 216(b) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 216(b). Alternatively, should the Court find that Defendants did not act willfully in failing to pay overtime premium pay wages, Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective are entitled to an award of pre-judgment interest at the applicable legal rate.

114. Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective are entitled to damages equal to the mandated overtime premium pay within the three (3) years preceding the date of filing of this Complaint, plus periods of equitable tolling because Defendants acted willfully and knew or showed reckless disregard of whether its conduct was prohibited by the FLSA.

115. Pursuant to FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), successful plaintiffs are entitled to reimbursement of the costs and attorneys' fees expended in successfully prosecuting an action for unpaid wages and overtime wages.
